

AT WAR WITH AMERICA

Counter-Spy Presents
*The First Documented Overview of Domestic Counter-Insurgency Capabilities In
 The Seventies*

As America enters the Bicentennial era, we find a new standing army composed not of red-coats, but of special domestic police forces, armed, trained and in some instances even controlled by the Pentagon.

During the height of the anti-war movement rumors prevailed of CIA spying, FBI harassment and even military coups. A mass of evidence has shown that what was once considered paranoid dreams about the FBI and CIA, are in fact, reality.

Now for the first time COUNTER-SPY documents the inter-links between the Pentagon and Federal, state and local police forces: OPPLAN GARDEN PLOT, OPPLAN LANTERN SPIKE, Operation GRAM METRIC I and II, CABLE SPLICER, emergency powers and military rule. All this and more is explored in the current COUNTER-SPY, the quarterly journal of the Fifth Estate. The current COUNTER-SPY, America's only Left journal focused on the intelligence community, takes a look at the neo-rightist National Caucus of Labor Committees; the CIA in Europe; and the growing "liberal" consensus on National Security.

"... shocking, cynical, paranoid ..."
